- 84 CPC reserves the right to repossess and resell any of the Goods in which it has retained title.
- 85 The Customer grants an irrevocable right and licence to CPC and its employees and agents to enter the Customer's premises with or without vehicles during normal business hours for the purpose of inspecting and/or repossessing Goods to which it has retained title. This right and licence shall continue to subsist notwithstanding the termination for any reason of any Contract and is without prejudice to any accrued rights CPC may have.
- 86 Whilst the Customer is in possession of the Goods with CPC's consent (but not otherwise) the Customer may in the ordinary course of its business include the Goods into any equipment, installation or premises, provided that the Customer shall pay the proceeds of such sales to CPC forthwith upon receipt.
- 87 The Customer acknowledges that as a consequence of its fiduciary relationship with CPC it is under a common law duty to CPC to hold the proceeds of any such sale on trust for CPC and not to mingle such proceeds with any other monies or pay them into an overdraft bank account.

9 SPECIFICATIONS & SUITABILITY

- 91 The assessment of the suitability, quality and fitness for a particular purpose of the Goods, shall be the Customer's responsibility, irrespective of any samples, specifications, formulations, data, literature and statements as to the content, suitability, performance or otherwise given by CPC.
- 92 Goods are supplied on condition that the Customer undertakes at all times to take and comply with (and draw to any third parties' attention and require them to take and comply with) all instructions and recommendations issued with or contained on or relating to the Goods or relevant data sheets, and all reasonable and prudent precautions as to their installation, use, maintenance, cleaning and otherwise.

- 15.1 CPC recognises that if a Consumer enters into a Contract in its capacity as a natural person for purposes which are outside the scope of business ("Consumer") and buys Goods or Services online, by phone or by email, then the following provisions of this clause 15 will apply.
- 15.2 The Consumer shall have a legal right to change its mind within 14 days and receive a refund under the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013.
- 15.3 The Consumer's right to change its mind does not apply in respect of:
